ATHLETIC CONTEST

The contest began with "Jack" Wright, Capt. Tilley, "Bat" Peachy and Corbell entered. The first event drop kicking for distance and accuracy, was won by Wright, who made 4 out of 5 goals from the thirty-yard line. The punting contest was won by Capt. Tilley with a distance of 49 yards. The third event, forward passing, was won by Peachy, who threw the pigskin 44 yards. Since each man had won a first place in the different events, the winner had to be determined by having one of the events again. Drop kicking was decided upon, and after several tries, "Jack" Wright, the star fullback on the "Varsity," won, and was accordingly awarded the medal offered in the contest.

PHI BETTA KAPPA THURSDAY NIGHT

The annual celebration of the Phi Beta Kappa Society will be held in the chapel of William and Mary College on next Thursday night, Dec. 5, at 8 o'clock. The orator of the occasion will be the Rev. James P. Smith, of Richmond.

Dr. Smith is probably the oldest living survivor of General Stonewall Jackson's staff. He was with the great Confederate chieftain when he received his death wound, and when the enemy's fire was turned toward the wounded leader, and his life was in danger, it was Smith, then a very young man, who threw his body across that of Jackson to protect him from harm. The subject of Dr. Smith's address will be "Disputed Points in the Life of Stonewall Jackson." This will be a most interesting address, coming as it does from a man who knows whereof he speaks. He is probably better qualified than any other living man to know the truth about Jackson, and he can tell it in an interesting way. Facts heretofore never printed will probably be brought out. In a way it is understood that this address is to be a reply to certain criticisms of one of the greatest, if not the greatest, leader produced by the terrible internecine war of the sixties.

A number of candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of the order during the evening, and a banquet will be served to the members, their ladies and invited guests. A cordial invitation is extended to the general public to be present at the address in the chapel.

ARE OBSERVING THANKSGIVING TODAY

Thanksgiving day is being generally observed here today by the closing of banks, postoffice, and a number of business places closed for a part of the day. Sunday rules are being observed at the hospital.

The college gave a holiday till Saturday morning and many of the students have gone home or to Richmond to witness the big football game. The public schools are closed till next Monday and the teachers are attending the Educational Conference in Richmond. A general air of holiday prevails, many citizens having taken advantage of the day to visit nearby cities.

Rub-My-Tism will cure you.

BARNETTS SCHOOL NEWS

Barnetts, Va., Nov. 25—The funeral of Mr. G. H. Ladd took place at Salem M. E. church Sunday, Nov. 17. A very large crowd of relatives and friends attended, showing the love and esteem in which he was held by the people of this county. He was an uncle of our teacher.

One of the patrons of this school, Mr. W. W. Poole, lost his barn, feed, and many farming implements, by fire last week.

Our teacher expects to attend the educational meeting in Richmond this week.

The roll of honor for week ending November 15, was as follows: Elva Stagg, Erma Poole, Lloyd Poole, Annie Myers, Thomas Hany, Geo. Hany, Shafer Hany, Harry Barlow, Maggie Adams, Jesse Spindler and Mitchell Barlow.

Monguy School League was organized Nov. 21 with an attendance of 39. 20 of whom joined the league, electing Mr. C. A. Green, president; and Mr. Fenley Jordan, secretary and treasurer.

We had preaching here last Sunday with a large attendance.

Mr. Farmer, have you sent in your item for the Farmers' Auction Dec. 4? If not, it will not be too late on day of the sale. Bring it along, or send it. Better still, show your interest by attending. It must not be a failure.

COL. PAVEY MAKES FINE ADDRESS

An audience of students and townspeople greeted Col. D. C. Pavey, of Boston, in the chapel of William and Mary College Tuesday night when he delivered an address on "An Evening with Dickens." Col. Pavey is now the only living newspaper man who talked with the great author during his visit to America, and his personal recollections of the novelist were highly interesting, related as they were in a charming style.

Col. Pavey, who was accompanied here by Mrs. Pavey, spent some time in visiting the battlefields and places of interest in this section. He made it a point to meet all the old Confederate veterans, although he was himself in the Union army. He says the proudest moment of his life was when he shared his rations and canteen with a wounded Confederate soldier at Appomattox, going hungry several days thereafter.

The annual Bazaar of the Presbyterian church will be held on December 13.

There is nothing new in the knitting mill situation. Reports that the big plant would resume operations shortly are not confirmed. Unless the mill is purchased by other people, a speedy resumption may not be expected.

While in the Richmond depot last Monday a thief stole Dr. J. H. Hume's suit case, containing $18 in checks and a quantity of clothing. Total loss about $40, no insurance. No, Dr. Hume had not been up town even.

FIRST SNOW THIS MORNING

For the first time within the memory of the "oldest inhabitant" snow fell here on Thanksgiving day. It is the earliest ever seen here by the present generation. It is genuine Christmas weather.

The ground is covered with an inch of snowy white and it looks like real winter. What will happen next, we wonder?

MISS RICHARDSON TO WED TODAY

A marriage license was issued in the clerk's office here Monday to Mr. William P. Volneberg to wed Miss Malissa Richardson. The couple live in James City, near Norge, and the ceremony will take place today at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Archer C. Richardson.

The happy couple will make their home in this county where they have many friends with whom they are popular.

The Virginia Chapter of the American Guild of Organists will send two of its leading members to conduct a special musical service in Bruton Parish church on the night of Dec. 12. This service is to be the biggest musical treat that Williamsburg has had for many a day.

LIBERTY SCHOOL NEWS

Lanexa, Va., Nov. 22—Liberty school Improvement League was held Friday night Nov. 15. The League elected Mrs. J. V. Taylor as a delegate to the Educational Conference to be held in Richmond during Thanksgiving week, with Miss Maggie Walls as alternate.

Among the pleasing features of the evening were an essay, "The Outlook to this Community" by Mrs. R. M. Turner and an encouraging talk by Miss Sue Cleaton.

Afterward refreshments were served consisting of cake and jelly. Everyone had a delightfully good time.

Seven new members were added to the roll.

COL. BACHELLOR MAKES HANDSOME DONATION

It is reliably reported that Col. George Clifton Bachellor, the wealthy New Yorker, has made a donation of $25,000 to William and Mary for an assembly hall. The details of the gift are lacking but will be given upon President Tyler's return from New York where he has been the past ten days on business for the college.

Col. Bachellor has already donated liberally to William and Mary, having given a large sum toward the library building. He has been a generous friend of the historic institution.

Sergeant Wilkins was confined to his home several days this week on account of sickness, but was able to be out yesterday.

TO AILING WOMEN

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Williamsburg.

No woman should consider herself healthy and well if the kidneys are weak. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are disordered. If the kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen worse troubles may quickly follow. This is often the cause of bearing-down pains, lameness, backache, etc. Urine poisoning is also frequent cause of headache, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a renal that has proven effective in thousands of such cases. Let a Williamsburg woman tell of her experience. Mrs. J. P. Van Fossen, Colonial Ave., Williamsburg, Va., says: "I am glad to repeat the words of praise I gave Doan's Kidney Pills two years ago. I take them occasionally and they always benefit me. There is nothing equal to this remedy for pain in the back and other symptoms of kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
